"By George, I never saw anything like the effects of that new treatment, Protone, for the building up of weight and lost nerve force. It acted more like a miracle than a medicine," said a well-known gentleman yesterday in speaking of the revolution that had taken place in his condition. "I began to think that there was nothing on earth that could make me fat. I tried tonics, digestives, heavy eating, diet, milk, beer and almost everything else you could think of, but without result. I had been thin for years, and

Any Man or Woman Who is Thin Can Recover Normal Weight by the Remarkable New Treatment, Protone.

began to think it was natural for me to be that way. Finally I read about the remarkable processes brought about by the use of Protone, so I decided to try it myself. Well, when I look at myself in the mirror now, I think it is somebody else. I have put on just 30 pounds during the last month and never felt stronger or more nervy in my life."

Protone is a powerful inducer of nutrition, increases cell-growth, makes perfect the assimilation of food, increases the number of blood-corpuscles, and, as a necessary result, builds up muscles and solid, healthy flesh, and rounds out the figure.

For women, Protone can never appear stylish in anything they wear because of their thinness, this remarkable treatment may prove a revelation. It is a healthy maker as well as a form builder and nerve strengthener.

It will cost you nothing to prove the remarkable effects of this treatment.
It is absolutely non-injurious to the most delicate system. The Protone Company will send you a free 50c. package of Protone, with full instructions to prove that it does the work they claim. Also send you their book on "Why You Are Thin," free of charge, giving facts which will probably astonish you. Send coupon below to-day with your name and address.

SOCIETY

LAST week will ever stand out in the calendar of social life of Richmond for its number of brilliant entertainments. One beautiful occasion after another, charming dinner parties and luncheons, informal tea and delightful afternoon receptions have followed each other in rapid succession. A great many out-of-town guests have also occasioned any number of informal affairs in their honor, besides the more formal entertainments introducing the debutantes.
Miss Randolph, however.

Mrs. John G. Miller, of 1904 West Avenue, entertained at a beautiful card party last evening in honor of Miss Nora Randolph, who is one of the most attractive debutantes of the season. Decorations were in bowls of pink roses and candelabra, with blue and green shades. Mrs. Miller's guests were: Misses Nora Randolph, Lucy Ford Wortham, Katherine Gunn, Mary Sainners, Nancy Patton, Letitia Woodard, Kate Grinnam, of Texas; Frances Wheat, Gwendolyn Rutherford, Margery Pearson, of North Carolina; Mosses, Talmage Donnan, Fred Pollard, Robert Jeffers, William Miller, Charles Whitlock, Surburg, Wortham, Spillane, Percy Montague, Travis Eppes, George Fitzgerald and Bernard Jones.

Mrs. Turner's Luncheon.
Mrs. M. V. Turner was hostess at a luncheon on Friday at 1:30 o'clock in her apartments at the Raleigh, in honor of Miss Mary Harmon, of Charlottesville, who is the guest of the Misses Traylor at the Chestfield.

Mrs. Turner's apartments are furnished after the fashion of a restaurant, and the shades, lights and burning sticks of Eastern incense, together with graceful baskets of shaded blossoms, made the room a veritable bower of beauty. In the dining-room the color scheme, green and white, was attractively carried out by shaded candles, venetian glass and pale green satin bows across the table. An oval of white and green orchids ornamented the centre of the table. Covers were laid for six, and Mrs. Turner's guests included Miss Harmon, the honoree; Miss Julia Joyner, Misses Mary and Anne Traylor, and Miss Elizabeth Gaines, of Warrenton, Va.

Informal Entertainments.
Mrs. John G. Hagan was hostess on Friday evening at a very informal chafing dish party in honor of Miss Mary Harmon, of Charlottesville, who is visiting the Misses Traylor.

Miss Nora Randolph also entertained informally at a small bridge party on Thursday evening in honor of Miss Sarah Jones, of North Carolina, who is the guest of Miss Mary Butler, on Floyd Avenue.

Concerning Miss Montague.

Mrs. Woodbury G. Langdon's reception at 719 Fifth Avenue, New York, to introduce Miss Helen M. Langdon, was one of the largest of the day. Miss Langdon is a great-granddaughter of Judge Montgomery Langdon, whose brother, John Langdon, was Colonial Governor of New Hampshire, and one of the signers of the Constitution.

Assisting the debutante in receiving were: Misses Sophie E. Langdon, Catharine Hamersley, Emily T. Montague, Margaret Suckley, Janet T. Montgomery, Isabel Hoy and Charlotte LeRoy Glover.

lead the coillon.

Miss Emily T. Montague is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Meredith E. Montague, formerly of Richmond, now of New York, and a niece of the late Mrs. Philip Haxall. Miss Montague is a debutante this season, and inherits much of the beauty and charm of her mother and aunt, who were among the most beautiful girls that have graced Richmond society.

Mrs. Caperton's Tea.
Mrs. Clifford Randolph Caperton was hostess on Thursday afternoon at the first of the series of teas given in honor of Mrs. William Gaston Caperton, of Winbidge, Monroe county, W.
Va. The rooms were decorated with vases of roses, chrysanthemums and lighted candles. Mrs. Caperton wear-roses, received the guests. Mrs. W. G.

Caperton, who was handsomely gowned in black brocade trimmed in old lace, with Golden Gate roses; Mrs. J.
Arthur LeRoy, in white chiffon cloth, trimmed in Limerick point lace, with pink roses; and Mrs. Christopher Tompkins, in black lace over white satin, assisted in receiving.

Mrs. Alston Cabell, Miss Helen Montague, and Mrs. George Powers received the guests in the library. Mrs.
Thomas O. Gordon, preceded tea, and Mrs. Stuart Hume and Mrs. Harry Lee Watson presided at the punch bowl.
The table in the dining-room was ornamented by a basket of yellow chrysanthemums, tied with yellow tulle.

Delight of Gift-Giving at the Christmas Season

It lies in great measure in having made the right selection. Shopping now offers this advantage. Delay means the hurried, tiresome and frequently disappointing experience that is inevitable in the days immediately preceding Christmas.

Gift-purchasers will find nothing lacking in their requirements from any of our Christmas stock. In every article there is that quality that makes the gift from this store highly appreciated.

The early morning hours are ideal for shopping. All our sections are in readiness for business from the opening hour. Salespeople are less occupied, stocks are in more orderly arrangement, and conditions are more conducive to the comfort and convenience of shoppers. The Christmas stocks of the Kaufmann Store are wonderfully comprehensive and complete. We take our usual place as the Christmas store of Richmond, and are in every way splendidly ready to serve you.

Again we emphasize the distinct advantage of doing your Christmas shopping here early.

A Matchless Display of Suits, Dresses and Capes at Prices Strikingly Low

We have timed this sale so that every woman can enjoy the benefit of these values. Very few women have entirely completed their clothing needs for the winter, so these bargains come at an opportune time. They are not only good values, but well made and in the latest style and correct colorings.

We doubt if the season's offering will witness another sale that will afford such good values.
